

FRAZIER AND HANNA JOIN IN URGING LOAN

Governor and Predecessor Will Unite Forces in Talking to Bankers Tonight

BIG ATTENDANCE FROM ALL PARTS OF SLOPE

Loyalty of Financiers of Western North Dakota Proven by Good Response

Former Governor L. B. Hanna, North Dakota's member of the ninth regional reserve bank board, and his successor as chief executive of North Dakota, Governor Lynn J. Frazier, will join this evening in urging upon the bankers of the Missouri slope the duty of getting behind the administration by subscribing liberally to the liberty loan.

The governors, past and present, and Attorney C. L. Young will be the principal speakers at this evening meeting of Missouri slope financiers, which will take the form of a banquet beginning at 7 o'clock at the Hotel McKenzie. Bankers from all parts of the district have been pouring into the city since early morning. The very gratifying response is regarded as a splendid commentary upon the loyalty of the slope.

Series of Meetings. Under the auspices of the state executive committee, headed by former Governor Hanna, district meetings are being held in North Dakota's four important banking centers. Northeastern bankers gathered at Grand Forks on Tuesday; northwestern bankers at Minot on Wednesday; the slope delegation is here today, and tomorrow the southeastern section of the state will assemble at Fargo. The former governor presides over all of these meetings, and on his arrival in Bismarck today he expressed satisfaction with the reception which the liberty loan idea has met in North Dakota.

County Chairmen Here.

Sub-chairmen have been named by the state executive committee in every county. Each county chairman in the slope district has been asked to bring with him to the Bismarck meeting this evening as many fellow bankers as could conveniently get away. It is anticipated that at least 50 covers will be laid at the McKenzies.

Sub-chairmen for this district, who are expected to attend this evening, are: Krist Kjelstrup, Underwood; J. A. Beck, McClusky; Thomas E. Hayward, Beach; A. O. Christianson, Fryberg; T. G. Ahern, Dunn Center; F. C. Wick, Center; R. M. Harmsen, Hazen; J. Leonard Bell, Bismarck; John F. Robinson, Steele; F. R. Heath, Napoleon; John Bischof, Zealand; A. P. Lenhart, Hazelton; Joseph P. Hess, Mandan; H. Hallenberg, Carson; P. J. Jacobson, Fort Yates; Alfred White, Dickinson; R. E. Trousedale, Mott; Paul M. Brown, Hettinger; C. P. Allison, Marmarth; J. E. Phelan, Bowman.

Wheat Hits Big Slump But Recovers

Great Britain Reported to Have Sold Immense Holdings for Future Delivery

FALL IN VALUES

NET SIXTEEN CENTS

Chicago, May 17.—Sensational downward plunge in the wheat market took place today, largely owing to reports that the United States government has asked Great Britain and her European allies to sell immense holdings of future delivery contracts of wheat which had been purchased in this country and which were said to be chiefly responsible for the recent skyrocketing price of breadstuffs. The maximum fall in values this morning was 16 cents.

Owing to the continuance of artificial restriction on trading, the aggregate of contraction in the wheat market was very small, despite the wide range in prices. July wheat, in which the greatest depression was witnessed, fell to $2.14, as against $2.30 at yesterday's finish, but later rallied to $2.20.

ANOTHER CAMP FOR OFFICERS NEXT AUGUST

Military Training Camps Associations Will Remain Active in North Dakota

RESERVE LIST WILL BE DRAWN ON AT SNELLING

"While the war department has made no official announcement in regard to a second series of camps, nevertheless it seems extremely probable that one will be held commencing in August," writes Wharton Clay, executive secretary of the Military Training Camps association of the Central department to the Bismarck headquarters for the Sixth North Dakota district.

Forty-four Camps Filled

Every one of the 14 camps authorized by the war department has been filled, and in the Central department the commanding officer of each camp has had an opportunity to make a final choice of the most desirable material, reports Mr. Clay. Ninety per cent of this result, he asserts, was accomplished by civilian cooperation. "We believe no such record has ever been made in the army history of this country, and certainly not within such a short time," says Mr. Clay.

The numbers certified to training camps in this division were as follows:

Fort Benjamin Harrison	9,238
Fort Sheridan	7,194
Fort Snelling	6,218
Fort Riley	5,283

Total 28,473

To Form Reserve List.

Certificates of suitability of men not accepted for the first training camps will be carefully examined and rated A, B and C, and from this number a reserve list of candidates will be selected for the purpose of filling vacancies resulting from sickness, resignations and other causes and in contemplation of additional camps. Orders to this effect have been received by each camp commander. Bismarck and the Slope country will have a large number of eligibles on this reserve list.

CABINET CRISIS IN RUSSIA ENDED; WAR CONFERENCE

A Government Policy Has Been Adopted by the Various Factions in Control

CONCESSIONS MADE TO VARIOUS RADICAL TYPES

Problem Now to Pick Commander of Army Who Can Restore Discipline

Petrograd, May 17.—The cabinet crisis may be considered as settled. A declaration of the government's policy, accepted by the council of soldiers' and workmen's delegates with merely verbal alterations will be signed by both parties without delay. It has been decided to take into the cabinet five representatives of different Socialist groups, which, with A. F. Kerensky, who assumes the war portfolio, will make a total of six of these groups sharing in the government.

Social Democrats. Three of the appointees will be social democrats, and three, including M. Kerensky, Socialist-populists. Of the former, M. Skobelev, vice president of the council of workmen's and soldiers' delegates, and M. Malantovich, and Odessa lawyer have been chosen definitely. The third appointee has not yet been named. Two of the Socialist-populist ministers will be M. Tchernoff and M. Pechekonoff.

Arrive for Conference.

Generals Alexieff, Dramoff, Gurko and Brussloff arrived in Petrograd today for a conference on the military situation. They declared the formation of a coalition ministry was indispensable as it would make possible strong measures to re-establish discipline and the fighting spirit in the army. The generals expressed the opinion that the appointment of M. Kerensky as minister of war would be received by the army with great enthusiasm, as he is very popular among the soldiers.

There are rumors that General Alexieff has resigned as commander-in-chief or that his resignation is impending.

BOY BADLY HURT WHEN BIG HORSES MAKE MAD DASH

Jack Cochran Has Broken Leg and Crushed Ankle as Result of Runaway

Thrown from the driver's seat and under the hoofs of the plunging horses, Jack Cochran, 15-year-old son of William Cochran, sustained a badly fractured leg and a crushed ankle this morning when a heavy draft team which he was driving took fright at a traction engine on Sweet street and bolted.

The horses, powerful blacks, owned by Mr. Cochran, made a wild dash down the street. A rut jolted the lad from his seat and under the flying hoofs, which ground one of his feet and ankles terribly. The horses were not stopped in their mad career until they attempted to straddle a telephone pole, which was snapped off like a pipestem near the middle, but leaving enough of the butt standing to halt the runaways. Neither of the horses was injured.

The runaway victim was removed at once to a local hospital, where his broken bones were attended to.

SQUADRON OF AMERICAN CRAFT IN WAR SERVICE

Arrive in Queenstown After an Almost Uneventful Voyage—Cheered by British

READY AT ONCE IS ANSWER TO COMMANDER

Equipment and General Preparedness Is Reported Excellent by Inspectors

Queenstown, May 17.—A squadron of American torpedo boat destroyers has safely crossed the Atlantic and is patrolling the seas in war service. The American navy's actual entry into the war zone has already been productive of a brush between a destroyer and a German under water boat, according to an announcement by the British admiralty, but the result of it has not been made public.

No Accidents.

The destroyer squadron arrived in Queenstown after an uneventful voyage across the Atlantic, but almost immediately after a formal exchange of greetings with the British naval officials, put to sea again for the hard work that is before it.

A crowd of several hundred persons, some of them carrying tiny American flags, lined the water front and cheered the destroyers from the moment they sighted the flotilla until it reached the dock. The crowd cheered again, when a few minutes later the American senior officer came ashore to greet the British senior officer and Wesley Frost, the American consul, who had come down to the dock to welcome the flotilla. Everything was done in a simple, businesslike manner. There was an entire absence of formality.

The commander of the British flotilla was waiting on board his ship and sent wireless greetings to the American units as soon as they were in sight, steaming in a long line into the harbor.

After the exchange of shore greetings and the British commander had congratulated the American officers on their safe voyage, he asked: "When will you be ready for business?" "We can start at once," the American commander replied promptly. This response, so characteristically American, surprised the British commander, who said he had not expected the Americans would be ready to begin work on this side so soon after their long voyage. When he had recovered from his surprise, however, he made a short tour of the destroyers and admitted that the Americans looked prepared.

"Yes," replied the American commander, "we made preparations on the way over. That is why we are ready."

The equipment on board the destroyer was found to be in excellent condition and remarkably well suited to the requirements on this side of the ocean. In fact, it was said by the British officer that the only thing lacking in the equipment of the American sailors was heavier clothing. It appears that the Americans were wearing clothing too light for the varying conditions of weather they will encounter in these waters. This lack, however, was quickly provided for.

Put Out to Sea.

After the formalities had ended and the needs of the men were attended to, the American ships at once put (Continued on Page Three)

One Dead, Several Others Seriously Ill After Eating Meal Served at Restaurant

GOVERNMENT STARTS INVESTIGATION

Corcoran of Philadelphia, and the illness of twelve other guardsmen last night.

The soldiers were on duty at Fort Perry, Pa., and yesterday were served with a meal from the restaurant conducted by Karl Miller, near their camp. Later Lieutenant Corcoran entered the headquarters of the command and complained of being ill. In five minutes he was dead. Within an hour a number of non-commissioned officers and privates had been seized by similar illness.

SENATE STILL BLOCKS ACTION ON ARMY BILL

Washington, May 17.—When the army bill came up in the senate today for final action on the conference report, it was thrown into a long debate over technicalities. The principal contention was over whether soldiers were being drafted for "the existing emergency," or "the war."

"Here we are at war," declared Chairman Chamberlain, of the military committee, "and the senate is splitting hairs on this proposition, with danger at our doors, and threatening to send the bill back to conference."

Some senators protested against the general language of the emergency clause, contending that it might create a military policy on the country. Senator Chamberlain pointed out that the senators delaying the bill were those who lost their fight against the draft system.

CATHOLIC JEW WILL DISCUSS SOCIALISM

David Goldstein, a Jewish-Catholic long prominent in Socialist circles and once candidate of that party for mayor of Boston, will tell Bismarck tonight why he left the Socialist party and what that organization is seeking to do in America. GERMANS PILE UP DEAD TO STOP BRITISH

Hindenburg's Sacrifices of Flow-er of Army Fail to Stem Advance of Allies

SUSTAINED COUNTER ATTACKS OF NO AVAIL

Position of Austria Precarious as Italians Strike Blow Threatening Trieste

(By Associated Press.) The Germans have piled high their dead before the British line, but have failed to stop the British advance. The most furious and sustained counter attacks have withered before the blasts of the British artillery and the sapping of the Hindenburg line goes on slowly, but without halt.

Efforts Failed. The tremendous effort made by Field Marshal von Hindenburg to stem the tide setting against him has given the battle of Arras an apparent ebb and flow, but the net result is that the most violent efforts of the Germans to regain the initiative have failed.

Italians Victorious. Possibly more ominous for Berlin in view of the wobbly condition of her Austrian ally is the news of the great blow struck by Italy in the direction of Trieste.

The Isonzo, a turbulent mountain stream, is in Italian hands for a distance of 15 to 20 miles north of Gorizia. General Cadorna appears to plan a great flanking movement against the Carso plateau, a natural rampart defending Trieste. The operation is, however, in too early a stage to permit judgment of its exact import.

Offensive in Macedonia. The allied offensive in Macedonia continues with considerable success for the British forces, but the fighting is on such an extended front, and so sporadic in character that its meaning is obscured. Reports from Bulgaria of discontent and weariness of the war may be significant in connection with General Sarraill's campaign.

MAKE PROGRESS. London, May 17.—The British have made further progress in the village of Bullecourt and have retaken its western edge, according to an official British war office statement issued this morning.

USE FRESH RESERVES. London, May 17.—The British and French have forced the Germans to use virtually all the fresh reserves they had at the beginning of the battle of Arras. Major-General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office told the Associated Press today.

When the British offensive began the Germans had 49 reserve divisions on the western front. The British onslaught at Arras and the more recent French offensive have compelled the Germans to employ all but four of these divisions. The German divisions have been reorganized since the beginning of the war. General Maurice continued, but at the present contain at least 20,000 men each.

CAPTURE 5,000 A. I. S. Berlin, May 17.—So far during May, says the official statement issued today by the German war office, the Germans on the western front have taken 2,300 English prisoners, and have captured 2,700 Frenchmen.

KITCHIN SAYS WAR TAX WILL REACH OVER TWO BILLIONS

Washington, May 17.—Democratic Leader Kitchin announced in the house today that the treasury department had notified him it would be necessary to raise $2,245,000,000, instead of $1,800,000,000, by the war revenue bills now under debate. He urged support of new proposals to raise the surtax increases on incomes above $40,000 as now contained in the bill, by one-fourth.

Substantial increase. The house began voting substantial increases on income tax and large fortunes today, with the result that all the great incomes would be taxed much more than at first proposed, to make them bear a larger part of the cost of the war.

Unexpectedly the insurgent movement which won a vote on the first increase yesterday got support from the administration itself. The treasury department notified Chairman Kitchin, of the ways and means committee, that the $1,800,000,000 to be raised by the war tax bill was half a billion short of what the government probably would need. Chairman Kitchin, who fought the income tax increases yesterday, promptly switched to their support. On the first vote today the house raised the surtaxes on incomes between $20,000 and $50,000 and made it 13.75 percent, instead of 11 percent, as proposed in the bill. Yesterday it increased the rate between $40,000 and $50,000.

With the advantage of administration support, republicans and democrats in favor of the increases began pouring in amendments with prospects of getting them through.

"No Teutons Here," Says Independent—Too Much Rah Rah and Stalled Auto

"There are no Teutons here," says the Enderlin Independent. The band scheduled for the meeting didn't show up because its tenor-horn player was stalled in the country with his automobile. A high school girl, who was to have sung, was hors de combat because she had rooted too hard for the home team in a baseball game that afternoon. These, says the Independent, were the only "defections." Both were "too tonic" rather than "Teutonic."

FOR THOSE WHO SUFFER PAIN IN STOMACH, BACK OR JOINTS

(By Samuel Hamilton, M. D.)

In recent years investigation by means of x-rays, the observations of scientists such as Cannon, Grutznier, Pavlov, Fowler, Hawk, prove that an abundance of water is necessary in good bodily housekeeping. To drink a pint of hot water before meals is good practice, and those suffering from a catarrhal condition of the stomach will find benefit in adding about 10 grains (one-sixth of a level teaspoonful) of baking-soda, drinking it an hour before each meal.

If your kidneys are sick, or you suffer with lumbago or rheumatism at times, pain in the back or back of the neck, take a little Anuric before meals. Anuric (double strength) can be found at any good drug store, and was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y.

When run down, when life indoors has brought about a stagnant condition in the circulation—most everyone is filled with uric acid—especially is this so of people past middle age. This uric acid in the blood often causes rheumatism, lumbago, swelling of hands or feet, or a bag-like condition under the eyes. Backache, frequent urination or the pains and stiffness of the joints and high blood pressure are also often noticed. Everyone should drink plenty of pure water and exercise in the open air as much as possible. I have found that Anuric is an antidote or this uric acid poison and that it will dissolve the accumulation of uric acid in the body much as hot water dissolves sugar.

SIMON AND BURNETT DECLINE TO GET OUT

New England and Dickinson Attorneys Will Have Fees—
Bismarck Case Last

C. H. Burris, a Bismarck cripple, whose limbs are so deformed that he must walk with his hands, pleaded guilty in United States district court this morning to shipping a prairie chicken from Morton county to Chicago and paid a fine of $1 and costs. At the same time Burris insisted through his attorney, William S. Langer of Mandan, that he was not actually guilty, but that his name had been used by other parties in making the shipment.

Session Under Way.
The May session of federal court got well under way this afternoon after devoting the morning to setting cases for trial.

Because Charles Geissel did not appear and could not be located, his suit against the village of Ashley for damages arising out of injuries sustained when Geissel fell on an alleged defective sidewalk was dismissed without prejudice. Should Mr. Geissel ever show up again he will have the privilege of bringing his action against Ashley.

Would Be Frozen Out.

Charles Simon of New England and W. F. Burnett of Dickinson refused this morning to be frozen out of the case of John P. Franz versus the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway. Franz appeared this morning with a petition that the particular case in which Simon and Burnett were acting be dismissed, alleging that he had never authorized Simon to bring this suit, and that his legal representatives were Jacobson & Murray of Mott, who appear for Franz in another action identical in every particular with the first and which will be tried at this term.

Simon and Burnett presented evidence sufficient to convince the court that Franz had originally retained them and that they had done a great amount of work in his behalf, whereupon the court ordered the Simon-Burnett action dismissed, but entered an order that these attorneys should have a right to recover for their services from any judgment awarded Franz in the suit which Jacobson and Murray are prosecuting.

Norton Pleads Not Guilty.
Charles Norton, charged with slashing United States mail bags at the Soo station here, pleaded not guilty, and, having no attorney Theodore Koffel was named to defend him.

Constantin Dietrich of Lemmon, charged with forgery, through his attorneys, Newton, Dullam and Young, asked until tomorrow to plead.

Other criminal cases which will be tried this week are the United States versus Maurice Brodahl, charged with introducing liquor on the reservation; the United States versus George Barth, United States versus William Hart, United States versus Axel Hanson, another prairie chicken case; Adolph Main and Pete Postle, charged with introducing liquor on the reservation; and Henry Eyselash and Joseph Postle, charged with stealing horses on the reservation.

Equity Cases.

There are only eight equity cases, the last and most important of which is the Todd Land company versus the city of Bismarck. A G. Divet of counsel for the plaintiff this morning prayed for leave to amend the bill of complaint. Judge Amidon advised that if such liberty were taken no further extension of time might be expected by plaintiff or defendant, but that the case would go to trial as scheduled.

Hamburg Dark; Coal Shortage

Copenhagen, May 17.—Owing to the shortage of coal, Hamburg is now without gas, except a limited supply for a few indispensable institutions. Most of the restaurants and cafes are closed in the evening, or are conducting a twilight existence with the aid of a few lamps. The streets are largely deserted and many households have only candles.

Jimtown Athlete Turned Down for Crook in Finger

Fort Snelling, Minn., May 17.—Richard, "Bud," Dougherty, former football star at St. Thomas college, St. Paul, and for the past year athletic coach at Jamestown college, Jamestown, N. D., was disqualified from the officers' reserve corps here today, because of a crooked finger, received several years ago in a baseball game. Dougherty had passed the physical examination, when an officer noticed his crooked finger. He was sent back to the examining board, which refused to pass him.

Home from Forks—A. F. Marquett of the Bismarck laundry is home from Grand Forks, where he attended the annual convention of the North Dakota Laundrymen's association. He occupied a prominent place on Tuesday's program, when he read a paper on "Laundry Owners' Protection on Express Shipments." The laundrymen re-elected E. P. Lee of Dickinson president and O. Hegge of Fargo secretary.

Additional Society News

Re-Elected to Office.
Mrs. A. L. Knauf of Jamestown was re-elected secretary of the Federation of Women's clubs at the morning session Wednesday in McCluskey at the third annual meeting of the district. This was the only office to be filled and Mrs. Knauf received the unanimous vote of the delegates. The capital city delegates have returned and report a very interesting meeting. Mrs. A. A. Bruce of Fifth street, who met with an accident en route and had to return, is recovering nicely.

Important Trifles.
The most trifling actions that affect a man's credit are to be regarded. Who Frances Carson Is

FRANCES CARSON

Pretty Frances Carson, who plays the saucy Judy in Henry Miller's "Daddy Long-Legs" company, and who charmed audiences last season and is doing so again this year, is a sweet and natural American girl, who had the good fortune to get a big chance on the stage and who has made good in it. She is 20 and was born in Philadelphia her father being of English descent and her mother an Austrian. Perhaps that combination is what gives her the brilliant coloring and red-kid hair which is one of her attractions.

Mr. Miller selected her for the role of "Judy" after seeing her in a stock company in her home city. Miss Carson was educated at the state normal school at Trenton, N. J., and did a lot

Commissioner Hagan Starts Campaign Against Barberry

Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor J. N. Hagan Orders Barberry Bushes Destroyed.

The whole world is now looking to this state for a large portion of its bread for the ensuing year. Anything that contributes directly or indirectly to the harvesting of the largest wheat crop in the history of our state is of prime importance. The barberry bush threatens that wheat crop. The destruction of the barberry bush is one important way in which we can assist our armies and those of our allies.

North Dakota farms in 1915 produced 150,000,000 bushels of wheat; in 1916 the fields yielded but 39,000,000, a falling off of 111,000,000, due primarily to the barberry bush.

It is commonly known to the farmers of North Dakota that the principal cause of this disastrous falling off in the state's wheat yield was the destruction wrought by black rust during the last three weeks of the growing season, immediately preceding harvest. A crop that during the

MINOT PROMISES TO DO ITS SHARE IN LIBERTY LOAN

Minot, N. D., May 17.—That the people of northwest North Dakota would do their share in subscribing for the liberty loan bonds was clearly demonstrated by the enthusiasm with which 50 bankers of this district, meeting in the Association of Commerce building this afternoon with the committee in charge of the disposal of bonds in this state, approved the committee's plan by which the banks of the state will accept bonds to the extent of one-tenth of their surplus and capital. Every county in this end of the state was represented at the meeting, which was marked by patriotism and a pronounced desire by financiers to co-operate with the government in solving the great financial problem.

L. B. Hanna, chairman of the state committee, outlined the plan of the treasury department and explained the bond issue. He expressed confidence in North Dakota and felt assured the allotment of this state would be oversubscribed. Tracy Bangs, Grand Forks, delivered an eloquent address.

All members of the state committee were present except T. L. Belsker, whose place was taken by W. C. MacLadden, Fargo, secretary of the State Bankers' association. Bankers announced a willingness to lend money on easy terms to people desirous of securing bonds. R. E. Barron, in charge of the campaign in Ward county, stated his county would subscribe about $125,000.

Mr. Hanna stated after the meeting that he was highly pleased with the spirit of the bankers of this district and felt confident all would do their share in disposing of the bonds.

The members of the committee left for Bismarck, where a similar meeting will be held this evening.

out to sea, the men from captains to seamen looking in the pink of condition and apparently enthusiastic for their task.

"They are certainly a fine body of men, and what's more, their craft looks just as fit," said the British commander as he watched the destroyers file seaward.

One of the American destroyers began war duty even before reaching this side of the Atlantic. This was when it picked up and escorted thru the danger zone one of the largest Atlantic liners.

This action so pleased the passengers on board that they sent a message of greeting and appreciation to the commander of the destroyer. The message read:

"British passengers on board a steamer bound for a British port under the protection of an American torpedo destroyer send their hearty greetings to her commander and her officers and crew and desire to express their keen appreciation of this practical co-operation between the government and the peoples of the United States and British empire who are now fighting together for the freedom of the seas."

aged to get snapshots of the American vessels in Queenstown harbor, but the best pictures, and those that are destined to become famous, are the moving pictures taken by the official British government photographer as the flotilla steamed into port. With his camera mounted on a small tug, the operator went out to meet the destroyers and filmed them from many angles.

On arriving in Queenstown, some of the members of the crews of the destroyers were granted brief shore leave. They were fairly made captives by the townspeople, who insisted on taking them to their homes, where they plied the sailors with good things to eat and drink. They were the first American naval men seen in these parts for many years, and they were bombarded with questions concerning the happenings in America by people who have relatives there.

As they wandered through the streets the Americans observed the

BLACK RUST

Destroy an enemy of the wheat crop. Dig out every Barberry bush. They start black stem rust on grain. Owners must dig them up within ten days after notification. (See Senate Bill No. 139.)

J. N. HAGAN,
Com'r of Agriculture and Labor

North Dakota in 1915 produced 150,000,000 bushels of wheat—in 1916 only 39,000,000 bushels, a falling off of 111,000,000 bushels. Rather startling figures, are they not, yet they are the figures given out by the Government Bureau of crop estimates.

The Barberry Bush

A plant found principally in the eastern parts of this state where it is planted for ornamental purposes starts black stem rust, and must be dug out.

Any shrub that breeds the rust spore that has cut down our state crop from 150,000,000 to 39,000,000 bushels is a threat and menace to our principal means of existence and should be destroyed utterly, root and branch. The agricultural authorities of Denmark in Europe have already undertaken the destruction of the barberry bush in their country, proving thereby that this shrub is the cause of black rust.

A law was passed at the last session of the state legislature providing for the eradication of the barberry bush, except the Japanese variety, declaring same to be a public nuisance and a menace to the public welfare, and making it the duty of every person owning, or having charge of any premises on which barberry bushes of the rust producing variety are grown, or found growing, to immediately destroy such bushes. The Department of Agriculture and Labor at Bismarck, N. D. is charged with the enforcement of this law.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN.

It is important that war relief work just now be concentrated in the Red Cross movement. The nation is deluged with all manner of projects. Some are worthy and others are not. The Elismarck Commercial club is besieged daily by agents or circulars representing war relief movements. None of these, with the exception of the Red Cross, an international movement of proven merit, has been endorsed officially.

Let us make the first main drive for the Red Cross and not spread our war charity over too much territory. The Red Cross is the official relief agency of the government. By the very force of circumstances it will be the controlling factor in all war relief work. There are other worthy movements, but the Red Cross is on the first line of defense and its needs are more urgent than those of any other society.

Every reader of the Tribune is asked to assist this worthy cause. How you may contribute is told in another column.

LEST WE FORGET.

Let us look our times squarely in the face.

The history of this old world of ours is full of disappearances of civilizations. Central and South America have abundant and unmistakable evidences of it. Underneath the debris and erosions in Europe and Asia are the splendors of old Rome, old Troy, old Babylons, old nations, old civilizations that made up the world of the time as certainly as we now make up the world of these times. Those old civilizations built as we do, sometimes better; they worshiped their god or gods as faithfully as we do ours; their aspirations were, in many respects, as high as ours, and, in some instances, they enjoyed social and governmental solidities greater than any we have today. But their peoples, their works, their civilizations are all gone.

The civilization of today faces a cataclysm. It must meet the test of war and famine. The issue before our civilization is one of reversion to barbarism, which, in process of time means the fate of those old dead and buried civilizations.

Our civilization is founded upon the teachings of Jesus, whose doctrine was love and helpful, uplifting progressivism. Two thousand years ago, He not only sowed the seed of enlightenment and higher civilization, but named the antidote for war and famine in the Golden Rule.

One of the very great nations of our day has abolished that rule and substituted for it the obsession that might is right. Germany justifies slaughter and starvation as individual, selfish necessities. Not all the world is as yet aroused to the fact, but German autocracy surely means cataclysm to the civilization of the times, an epoch in all human affairs. With out liberty, equality, justice, democracy, our civilization goes backward and is finally buried as were those old ones.

War and famine! A cataclysm! We have to kill war by crushing Germany, and famine is the effect of war. What sacrifice of blood, effort and treasure can be too great? Close upon the hunger that rules throughout the world presses actual starvation. Starving, the human animal is like any other, madly reckless, without principle or reason. We'll may those who have much give much to the cause of saving the civilization of our era!

Why picture Uncle Sam as an old fellow with long whiskers, when the army is going to be one of strapping young chaps of football age?

JOFFRE IMPRESSED.

The other day, while crossing the river, the great French general, Joffre, got his first view of New York City, and dispatches say that he was dumb-founded; that he answered questions only with monosyllables, but looked and looked and looked. He well knew the beauty and magnitude of Paris. He had a high conception of the greatness, the strength, the seriousness of great London. Here, now, before him was the metropolis of the New World, and it made him gasp.

Back and forth before him in the harbor ran a myriad of craft, of every description, from mud-scow to ocean greyhound. In any one of those great 30 and 40-story stone buildings before him could be hidden a Paris or London block of structures. The inimitable roar of seven millions of people came to his ears. Here was solidity, here enterprise, power, greatness nowhere else on earth to be found. Nothing spoke of antiquity, or conservativeness, or indifference. It was all a vast monument of innovation, activity and force.

The land of Washington and Lincoln! A nation born in the name of liberty, saved in the name of equality, justice and progress! A people as solid as these enormous piles of stone and steel that rival the Seven Wonders of the World. A people who harness the Niagara falls, who chain the mighty Mississippi, who rear a Chicago, a Baltimore, a San Francisco from amid the smoking ashes; a people who wed Atlantic with Pacific, when the centuries' ingenuity has failed; a people of greatest railroads, schools, libraries, churches, hospitals, colleges and all public buildings; a people who meet catastrophe with invention; a people who become brothers after Appomattox; a people who, when rights of liberty and equality are endangered, rise as a clan of giants to do or die. And shoulder to shoulder they stand with France!

The grand old Frenchman had been wine, dine, toasted on both sides, saluted on all sides, honored in every way, by government and individual. He had seen into the heart of the American people and discovered a loving friend, and his emotions sometimes overcame him. He now beheld the towering strength of the nation's metropolis, understood what France's ally is, and was speechless. Discovery of great facts has that effect upon great men.

Must be a tough situation, when Russia's new government publicly announces that the country is threatened with civil war and anarchy.

SPEED UP!

It is clear enough now that the United States will never get started in this war, will never put in motion her tremendous power to end the war, until members of Congress are made to understand that they are hired to work for the nation and not for themselves.

Nearly six weeks have passed since, with the most exalted of motives and the most righteous aims, we declared to the world that we took up the sword to defend civilization and democracy. Today all our activities are still hung upon a dead center because of the vast egotism displayed in Congress.

Helped, of course, by disloyalty. Because we should not for a moment overlook the fact that the Copperheads are busy on Capitol Hill. With out the courage to come into the open they seize every opportunity to sting into paralysis the government they have sworn to uphold.

This is the tragic situation

We see France being put to death before us. We hear her appeals for help. We feel deeply the national obligation to save her—on her account and our own no less. Some of us even begin to understand that if we allow France to be crushed our own existence is placed in the deadliest peril.

The nation, deeply moved, demands action, swift, sure, resolute. Congress stops all action by going adrift upon a heaving sea of verbiage and guff.

Six weeks and not one piece of war legislation completed, and here is the cause.

Take, for instance, the preposterous and insane deadlock between the two houses over the army draft bill.

One bullheaded outfit wanted to keep in the provision for the Roosevelt contingent and the other bullheaded outfit was determined to get it out, and they held up all action and wasted almost two weeks of invaluable time while they wrangled about that!

The Great American Home!

A SHOWER FOR THE JUNE BRIDE

To any mind except a congressional mind it was all the time perfectly plain that whether the Roosevelt provision was a good thing or a bad thing, it didn't have to go in that bill.

If it was good, put it into a separate measure, but for the love of sanity don't block everything while you squall and scrap like back alley cats over a point of that kind.

Get something moving, get under way, get started on some line of action.

The summer, which is the only time when there can be effective movements on the western front is very short in that latitude. Every moment is priceless. If the mutts in Congress keep on this way they will prevent any kind of action by this country until the summer of 1918 and who knows what may happen to us and our allies before that time?

Where do we trap all these preposterous incompetents that we send to Congress? Where do they come from? What is the method by which we select the dullest mind and thickest skull in a district or a state to go to Washington and muck up everything with his incurable stupidity?

Henry Lane Wilson, ex-to-Mexico, gets a 6-cent libel verdict against Norman Hapgood, instead of $500,000 asked. Pay it in 1-cent postage stamps, Norman!

When you buy bread these days it is a good idea to find out how much it costs per ounce instead of how much per loaf.

And now the Kaiser is monkeying with Italy for a separate peace. His secret diplomacy is about as tough to handle as his submarines.

Your Own Garden

BY A GARDENER.

Some plants require protection from direct sun rays, especially when they are quite small, or have just been transferred from seed bed to open ground.

When the sunshine is very hot during the summer plants grown for salad purposes, are benefited by shading.

Where boards are available they can be used for protecting plants that have been set in rows in the garden by placing them on the south side of the row at an angle that will cast a shadow over the plants, holding them in place by short stakes driven in the ground. Be watchful that boards do not blow over on windy days. Better nail 'em to the stakes.

I have grown summer lettuce by keeping the lettuce bed covered during midday by a muslin screen. The leaves were just as crisp and tender as those of plants grown earlier in the season.

While there is little change of a killing frost coming now it would be well worth the gardener's time to keep his weather eye open for an extra cool evening. If frost does threaten, cover up all plants transferred from the seed bed, tomatoes, eggplant, cucumbers, melons, corn. Light frosts will do no harm to peas, lettuce, radishes, but they will hurt potatoes. Beans and transplanted seedlings. Forsooth may be used for coverings. So may frames covered with paper, burlap, muslin. Tin cans cover small plants.

Don't let a frost catch you unaware.

Has 14-Year-Old Girl The Heart to Kill?

RECORD OF CHILD MURDER CASES

Police records shows these cases of death in which children were the principals:

Six-year-old James Cyne thrown to death in Raritan canal, New Jersey, by boy companions.

Ruth Butler, at age of three, strangled her baby sister by tying her up to keep her from "wunnin' away" and who a year later killed her baby brother by putting chloroform "where his tooth ought to be," as she had seen her elders do for toothache.

Eve Tice, aged 13, New York, who shot and killed her father while he was attacking her mother, in October, 1915.

John Augustian, 7, Pittsburgh, who shot a 17-year-old girl when she told the boy's mother he was mischievous.

Willie Zimmer, aged 13, New Orleans, who killed his mother—a subnormal boy saved from the gallows by a campaign in which newspapers played a prominent part.

Chicago, May 17.—Has a 14-year-old girl the heart to kill?

Do modern motion pictures and love novels give children the minds and emotions of grown-ups?

Scientists, psychologists and veteran police officials are asking these questions today, questions arising in the case of little Doris Anderson, 14, brown-eyed, curly-haired, child beauty of winsome grace and premature coquetry, held on suspicion of having shot to death her 13-year-old chum, Gracie Hagemann.

Little Doris is like an actress.

In the city jail the child beauty played Nazimova, Theda Bara and Mary Pickford by turns as she answered questions. Cool and calm, able to look straight into the most piercing eyes as she underwent hour after hour of ordeal, laughing with a piquant shrug of the tiny shoulders, or direct and hard as steel in denying guilt of murder, this little child has made scientists of Chicago stand in puzzled wonder.

What influence has made this child what she is?

Is there in the laughing bud of short dresses and flowing curls today an adult mind and psychology grown after the pattern of life as it is whirled across the screen of movieland and woven in the thrills of modern vampire love novels—both products of today that were missing when the mothers of today's little girls were young?

Does night after night of vampireland on screen and between paper covers in the most tender and formative years of life make a life after the pattern of that on which it feeds? The police say it does.

Doris' favorite movie characters, the police say, were Theda Bara, famous "vampire," and W. S. Hart, famous two-gun man; her favorite literature that of vivid love and violent adventure.

"Do I look like a murderer?" asks Doris. "I should think you could tell by looking at me that I am innocent. And I feel innocent."

"I'd rather deal with a hardened, expert criminal any day than with a little girl. They're the worst—the worst kind of people to understand," says Police Captain Danner.

The two girls were chums. Both had sweethearts, the authorities say, and there are stories that both loved the same boy, 14-year-old Reinhardt Fleck.

"Reiny," as they called him, was a member of the "Mystic Five," a theatrical band of boys who met in dark places and talked strange phrases from the land of melodrama. The two girls were often admitted to this charmed circle.

Little Gracie was found with a bullet through her breast. Doris says: "She shot herself. I got her a revolver. She said she wanted to scare Reiny."

Back of it all there are the whirling films, the cheaply printed pages—the mystery of what these things do to a sweet little girl who sees too much of them. And all around are grave scientists trying to answer that momentous question for the sake of other little girls of 14—and for the sake of little Doris, too, whose life has suddenly brought her to a stage in a police station where she acts like a grown-up and talks like a grown-up, and plays Theda Bara and Alla Nazimova, by turns, before her puzzled elders.

SOCIETY

Enthusiastic Audience Greet School Children at Auditorium

The entertainment given Wednesday evening in the Auditorium by 100 school children under the direction of Miss Clara Tatley, supervisor of public school music, assisted by Miss Jessie McLeod, supervisor of drawing, was one of the most successful amateur affairs ever presented here. Nothing was lacking in the production of Miss Tatley's fairyland operetta, "The Pixies." From the orchestra to the smallest detail of the operetta could be seen the artistic finish which can only be acquired by one of Miss Tatley's and her assistant's ability. Too much cannot be said of the two young instructors, who worked so hard and gave so much of their own talents to make it the huge success it was.

Catchy Music.
The operetta, which is featured with catchy music, funny incidents and little love scenes, was splendidly staged. The first scene showed the fairies asleep and early sunrise in fairyland, in the Queen's palace garden. The second scene showed the night smithy of the Goblins and the last scene was staged as the first. The operetta was directed by Miss Tatley, who acted and sang very well. Her acting and singing were both far above the amateur. She was given fine support by Walter Penwarden, as Prince Florimel, ruler of the Pixies. The duet, "When Hearts Are True," sung by Miss Tatley and Mr. Penwarden, was one of the big hits of the evening. Mary Murray took the part of the fairy exquisite or maid-in-waiting to the queen, and Helen Steele, Bunnings, Little Miss Steele gave the stately dance and the solo dance with a group of flower girls, which were special features. Little Fern Wallace and Edna Dean East were the wee fairy attendants to the queen. Masters Grant Knowles and Harold Larue were pages to the Prince. These little tots were given quite an ovation for their splendid acting.

Pixie Band.
The Pixie band furnished the greatest part of the amusement. The various characters making up the band were cleverly interpreted. Kenneth Allen interpreted the English Duke; Charles Burke, Uncle Sam; Robert George, the Major; Robert Larson, policeman; Warren Taylor, the Chinaman; John McGowan, Italian minstrel; John Russ, performing monkey; Tyler Kludt, the Irishman, and Eddie Fischer, the Dutchman. The Scotch pixies, boy scouts, sailors and plain clothes pixies contributed their share to the merriment.

The goblins gave the realistic touch to the fairy tale. Their maneuvers were both weird and spooky and added much to the success of the operetta. Cyril Grace filled the role of the ruler of the goblins. The three furies, Christine Huber, Katherine Cook and Mildred Bangham shared honors with the goblins.

Miss Viola Hibbs made a striking Columbia and with Uncle Sam introduced the patriotic note in the operetta. The singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" was made more solemn by the whole assembly rising to its feet. Miss Helen Fogarty gave the Irish dance.

Much of the success of the entertainment was due to the high school orchestra, composed of, sigrid Alfson, Olga Vigness, violins; Reuben Strutz, cornet; Granville Grambs, drums, and Wally Dirlam, piano. They furnished the music for the entire performance with a smoothness and finish which could hardly be expected from such young musicians. Under the baton wielded by Miss Tatley the orchestra and singers were kept together without any hitch.

The following groups completed the cast and contributed largely to the entertainment:

Flower Girls.
Betty Morrissey, Marjorie Smith, Alta Jones, Zella Harris, Frances Wanner, Kathryn Marquis and Helen Steele.

Butterfly Guards.
Louise Eernst, Margaret Fogarty, Cecile Elstrom and Esther Katz.

Company A Boys to Have A Real "Feed" Tonight

Thursday, May 17, will be a red letter day for the boys of Company A. Women of the Auxiliary to Company A have prepared an elaborate feed for the boys this evening at Camp Frazier.

The committee of eight women in charge of the "feed" has left nothing out of the bill of fare which might appeal to the boys. As far as is possible every article is home made, like what mother used to make. Strawberries, ice cream, cake, together with lots of bread and butter, potatoes, salads and vegetables are included in the menu.

Benefit For Children's Ward.
The Junior Young People's alliance of the Fargo Zion church of the Evangelical association will give a benefit entertainment this evening in the church. The proceeds will be used to help furnish the children's ward in the Bismarck hospital. Rev. Mr. Mentges, pastor of the church, was formerly connected with the local institution.

Juniors to Give Play.
Members of the junior class of the high school will give their annual class play Friday evening, May 25, in the Auditorium. They will present "Green Stockings" under the direction of Miss Frances Lamb and C. F. Bolt of the high school faculty.

Club Women Doing "Bit."
Members of the Mandan Civic league have joined the large army of women in the conservation of food. Mrs. Joseph P. Hess, chairman of the league, announces that the two lots adjoining the Collins Avenue park have been plowed up and seeded to potatoes. The boulevard bordering the lots has also been planted with potatoes. The work will be supervised by the club members and a fine crop is anticipated.

Returns From Wedding Trip.
Mrs. J. B. Cooley has returned to Grand Forks from Minneapolis, where she spent a short honeymoon with her husband, and has resumed her work at the university. Mr. Cooley entered the officers' training camp at Fort Snelling. Mrs. Cooley, who was formerly Miss Ethel E. Halcrow, will complete her work at the university and will spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. John Halcrow of Bismarck, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Cooley of Grand Forks. Mrs. Cooley is a sister of Mrs. J. G. Moore and Mrs. C. W. Moses of this city.

Personal Notes.
Miss Iona Taylor has resigned her position at the Webb Brothers store and has gone to her home in Windsor to arrange for her marriage to Elwood Lusk. Their wedding will be an event of Wednesday, June 27.

Miss Pauline Hibbs of First street has returned from Fargo, where she accompanied her father, Dr. C. C. Hibbs. Dr. Hibbs attended a meeting of the State Dental association.

Miss Anna Sheldon of Washburn was the guest Wednesday of Miss Sather of Thayer street. Miss Sheldon was accompanied by her sister, Miss Alice, who entered the St. Alex. hospital for treatment.

Miss Minnie Freise, for a number of years connected with the Bismarck hospital, has arrived in the city from New Salem to offer her services as a Red Cross nurse to the Bismarck unit, which is being organized here.

MANDAN WOMEN FORM RED CROSS CHAPTER

Mandan has started a Red Cross chapter with a membership of 55. Seventy-five of the club and other women of the city met Tuesday in the Commercial club rooms and made the preliminary plans.

Mrs. W. H. Stutsman was elected chairman and will have direct charge over the new organization. She will also head a committee of 10 to complete the final organization of the chapter. The other members are Mrs. E. K. Bitting, Mrs. C. P. O'Rourke, Mrs. G. A. Renden, Mrs. Martin Kranz, Mrs. William Mackin, Miss Irene Dillon, J. H. Newton, George Janda and W. A. Lanterman.

Miss Dillon, superintendent of the Mandan hospital, gave an outline of the work which the local chapter could undertake at once. Classes in nursing and first aid work will be started as soon as instructors are named and class hours and places of meetings decided upon. Miss Dillon and her assistant, Mrs. Farley, have pledged their support to the chapter. The membership dues are $1.00.

Those in charge of the movement hope to enroll at least 100 men and women within the next few weeks.

WAR WILL FEATURE GRADUATION ESSAYS

Educators of the country were urged by Secretary Lane today to give prominence to commencement exercises this year in public schools, universities and colleges, to a discussion of the causes and purposes of the war. More than two score of subjects for commencement day essays and orations, such as "Belgian Wrongs," "The Debt of the United States to France," "War Bread," "How Can I Help in the War?" and "America's Duty to the World Democracies" are suggested by the secretary.

Invalid Mother Gives Three Sons to Nation

By Mary Boyle O'Reilly.
New York, May 16.—"Since the country calls for its young men mothers must bid them go."

The bravest woman in New York reclined against her pillows exhausted. Mrs. Florence Price of 1210 Avenue J, Brooklyn, who is an invalid, had just come from giving her three sons to the navy.

"The hidden hand that holds boys back from enlisting is often their mothers," continued Mrs. Price. "Rich parents never know the love which binds a poor family together. Poverty wears out a woman. Her children see it—and repay."

"My boys hesitated to enlist through anxiety for my comfort. I knew they wished to serve the country, and my two daughters wanted to do their share."

"While they thought me asleep I overheard Errol tell Fred, 'If mother were strong and well we would be free to go,' and Fred said to Scoville, 'Mother must not suffer deprivation; mother needs all we can earn.'"

"They knew, none better, that the poor mother who gives her son to the army or navy surrenders the support of her old age."

"Today, at 39, I am an invalid almost helpless. For me the world means our home, my three sons and my two daughters."

"I assembled the five round my bed, 'Children,' I told them, 'we are an American family; we must do our bit.'"

"For 50 years the country has given its people happiness and prosperity, requiring no service in return."

Women of Bismarck will now be able to do Red Cross work. The Bismarck unit of the Red Cross hospital corps has received orders from Washington to begin work at once. The orders stipulate the making of bandages, gauze sponges, bed dressings and comfort articles for the army and navy.

Miss Minnie Freise of the Bismarck hospital is in charge of the local mobilization of workers. Space has been given in the basement of the Bismarck hospital for work rooms and capital city women, who long have wanted to do something for the Red Cross, can at once offer their services for work. The only requirements will be that each woman bring her own needle and thread.

Arrangements have been made with the Bismarck Red Cross chapter to assist the hospital corps with funds for the purchase of materials. Women desiring to aid in this work should communicate with Miss Freise at the Bismarck hospital.

Matty Makes Use of Old-Time Defeat To Win Games Against Big Pitchers

BY PAUL PURMAN.

A few days ago the Cincinnati Reds bunted Phil Douglas out of a ball game.

The performance was interesting because of its cause rather than its effect.

The cause was that once Christy Mathewson had been bunted out of a ball game himself and he never forgot it.

This season when he took charge of the Reds at Shreveport he spent an hour a day teaching his men to bunt.

"Bunting is invaluable to a team when opposed by a big pitcher," Matty explained. "Successive bunts rattle a big man, who has trouble handling slowly hit balls down in his territory and the coolest man in the business is likely to throw away a ball game under those conditions."

Then Matty went on to explain how this was brought home to him in a game at St. Louis a few years ago.

SPORT CHATTER

Some people don't know when they are well off. Guys who have been paying good coin to see some of those fake fights in New York are crabbing because the boxing law has been so passed.

Killing boxing in New York probably means that some of the tinnhorn promoters and pork and beaners will have to go to work. Maybe Jess Willard isn't the great-

The game was engineered by Miller Huggins, one of the best guessers in the league.

Formerly Matty had had little trouble in beating the Cards and Huggins framed on him.

"The first man up bunted perfectly," Matty said. "So did the second and third."

The second man was thrown out, but the last thing in the world a ball club would expect was a bunt from the third man and the infield didn't play for it. The fourth and fifth men crossed the club with bunts. I was working my head off fielding those little dumped balls, so certainly would qualify as the greatest champion nickle nurse.

Hu-hum Molla Bjurstedt has won another tennis meet. Molla will soon be in the Willie Hoppe class.

Seven American league managers

SPITBALL ARTIST SUFFERS WHEN LOUIE GUISTO INTRODUCES GARLIC IN GAME

The latest strategy to be used against spitball pitchers has been invented this season by Louie Guisto, Italian first baseman, now serving his first year in the majors.

The big Italian has a formula which will send any moist ball artist hiking to the refreshment stands and is justly proud of his achievement.

Bert Gallia of Washington was Guisto's first victim.

Gallia had worked with the moistened ball only part of an inning when his face twitched in anguish as he moistened his fingers to toss up the pill. As the inning proceeded Gallia's torment became more pronounced. Tears streamed from his eyes and his face was contorted.

was Myers, who was catching me." The score is not important. St. Louis had a big inning, enough to win the ball game. Bunt followed bunt and a wild throw or two told the story.

Matty took that experience as a lesson and will work it out on his own ball club. He has already started and it will not be surprising if several big National league pitchers don't feel the sting of defeat just because of that fact.

Miller Huggins is a great exponent of the bunt. It made him a successful hitter when he was playing regularly. Huggins was small and did not have the strength to be a slugger, but for years he kept near the top of the list by bunting and out guessing the opposing pitchers.

Practically every major league manager will admit that bunting at the right time is the best kind of inside baseball, yet most of them quake no attempt to teach their players the bunting game.

One reason for this probably is that players do not like to bunt. They want to wallop the ball and it is hard to get them out of the notion.

are heartily in favor of Ruthless baseball.

ADD CHEERFUL NEWS

To the Navy—Elmer Oliphant has been elected captain of the Army football team.

Brothers' College Team Wrecked by Recruit Demand

St. Louis, May 17.—Navy enlistments have wrecked the baseball team of Christian Brothers College here. The following members of the 1917 team already have joined: Theobald O'Connor, Laird, Keenan and Benke. Several other athletes are planning to enlist.

Want Athletes To Compete in Scandinavia

Unless the war interferes it is likely that another American athletic team will visit Norway, Sweden, Denmark this fall to compete with the Scandinavian athletes in field and track events.

The success of the American team that went to Sweden last fall spurred Scandinavian athletes to greater efforts and they want another chance at the American track experts.

Bob Simpson, Ted Meredith, Jo Loomis and one or two other athletes made up the last American team to compete in northern Europe.

A. Holm and Z. Zander gave the Americans their greatest competition and if American athletes do not go to Europe this year it is likely the A. A. U. will try to bring the Swedish sprinters to this country.

McKinney Watched By Baseball Scouts

Kansas City, May 17.—Baseball scout are watching the work of C. C. McKinney, a pitcher from William Jewell College, who, thus far this season, has pitched thirty-three innings and has fanned seventy-three batsmen, an average of almost two and a third strikeouts an inning. Besides he has only allowed five hits. Two one-hit games and one no-hit contest are already to his credit.

When not in the pitcher's box, McKinney plays the outfield and he is regarded as one of the best gardeners in the state. He has a batting average of 400 for six games. McKinney lives in Topeka, Mo., and is running mate of Robert Simpson, the world's champion hurdler.

Football Suspended At Minnesota U

Minneapolis, May 17.—The decision of the university of Minnesota to take no part in football next fall was a blow to Dr. Harry Williams, the gridiron coach, who took the position that no action should have been taken until next fall when the exact conditions under which football will be played became known.

"It may prove to be the right step," Dr. Williams said, "but I had hoped that the question might have been left open until fall. Just at present, all is unsettled on account of the enlistments and the coming draft and no one has any time to think about football. By September, the situation may have changed considerably."

Joins Army
"I had thought that if the university had continued open it would not only be proper but desirable that the students who were attending should keep up football. The cream of the present football team has already joined some arm of the service and will undoubtedly prove to be valuable men. Why not then start another crop of athletes who will be ready to go in a year or two if needed?"
"Football training is one of the best preparatory courses for making a good officer that the university can offer. I shall cooperate in every possible way to help build up and develop intra-rural football to take the place of the usual 'big game' games."

OPPOSES CUTTING DOWN SCHEDULES OF LEAGUE

Indianapolis, May 17.—James C. McGill, president of the Indianapolis club of the American association, is opposed to a cancellation of a part of the schedule. There has been some agi-

SHOULD NOT SUSPEND BASEBALL HEAD LINERS

Cleveland, O., May 17.—It's all wrong to suspend the stars of baseball, in the opinion of Hughey Jennings, manager of the Detroit Americans. The public, he says, pays its money to see the stars perform and should not be cheated. The proper solution is to fine the offending player and see that the fine is paid, Jennings believes.

"It isn't treating the public fairly and it is not treating the club squarely to suspend the stars of the game," Jennings said. "People come out to see the stars play. We know that for every time Ty Cobb is out of our lineup the gate receipts take a big tumble. And every time Walter Johnson is advertised to pitch in Detroit the receipts jump about 30 per cent. "What does a club get when a star is suspended? A financial loss. And what does the star get? Nothing more than a vacation. Baseball clubs should fine the player for every day that he's out of the lineup."

"Baseball clubs have been in the habit of paying the fines of their players, and in this they are peculiar, for in no other business does a firm fail to dock its employees, especially if they are trouble makers. Any time a players' pocketbook is hit, you hit his weak spot. And that is what should be hit, not the club that has his contract or the public, which pays the price to see him play."

MILLERS AND MUD HENS TO PLAY OFF BENEFITS

Minneapolis, May 17.—A benefit baseball game, the proceeds of which will go to the University of Minnesota base hospital, will be played here by the local American Association club and Columbus, May 18, under the auspices of Minneapolis business men. Society women, many of whom are Red Cross workers, will sell tickets for the game.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS, BOARD OF CITY COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of City Commissioners met in regular session May 14, 1917. All were present with the exception of Commissioner Batty. Petition received from William Laist and 77 others protesting against the proposed "Livestock Ordinance." The Commission then decided to defer the second reading of said ordinance. Commissioner Bertsch introduced a "License Ordinance," which was read for the first time and referred to a committee, of which he was named chairman. It was decided to place an alight directly in front of St. Alevius hospital. Commissioner Kirk was to look after the details of the placing of this light. The City Engineer said that because of unsanitary conditions and for other reasons the City should own the alleys just as they do the streets. He was instructed to prepare a plat showing alleys which should be opened and the names of the property owners affected. Commissioner East makes a written report.

SIoux COMING INTO HIS OWN REPORTS KITCH

Superintendent of Standing Rock
Reservation Tells of Remarkable Progress

AGRICULTURAL ACREAGE
100 PERCENT GREATER

Red Man Doing His Share to Help
Great White Father With Food Production

The Red Man is doing his share to assist the Great White Father at Washington to increase food production, reports Major James B. Kitch, superintendent of the Standing Rock reservation, who arrived in Bismarck yesterday afternoon with 14 Sioux summoned here as witnesses in cases to be tried by the United States district court.

Big Increase in Acreage.
The cultivated acreage on the Standing Rock Indian reservation will be from 50 to 100 per cent greater, than in previous years. The government has advanced the Indians more than $13,000 worth of seed, to be collected for at the threshing next fall, and in addition, independent Red Men have made purchases of $15,000 to $20,000 at Bismarck and other points.

"There is a remarkable development in the Sioux's interest in agriculture," said Major Kitch today. "Where in former years we have used $5,000 worth of seed, this spring we started out with $10,000 worth, and then were compelled to ask for 25 per cent more, which we promptly got."

Better Farming Contest.
Major Kitch, who recently conducted a successful better farming campaign on the reservation, has now inaugurated a better farming contest. All male Indians over 18 and of one-fourth or more Indian blood, who are engaged in farming, are eligible to enter.

"The Sioux is making great strides," said Major Kitch to a press correspondent today. "He is gaining all of the time. From 25 to 50 per cent of our salaried employees at the agency are Indians, and they are making good. One of our best men, when he first came to the Indian school, had his hair braided and his face painted in honor of the occasion. He went to Carlisle with his hair in braids, and he returned a twentieth century American citizen who can hold his own with any of his white co-workers."

Practically all of the Indian school boys of 18 or over have offered their services to the flag, and a majority of them have been accepted. There are fewer enlistments among the older Indians, but there is a true spirit of patriotism.

put on my shoe. I used salves and other things that ate off more of the toe than they did the corn. I'd cut and dig with knives and scissors, but now no more fooling for me. Two drops of 'Gets-It' did all the work. It makes the corn shrivel and get so loose that you can just pick it right off with your fingers."
There has been nothing new discovered for corns since "Gets-It" was born. It's the new way—the common-sense, simple, sure way. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
Sold in Bismarck and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Finney's Drug Store.

ity regarding alleged violations of liquor laws of North Dakota. The hearing was postponed until Friday afternoon, following a conference between the attorneys for the men and the state. Mr. Brennan stated this afternoon that he thought it possible that an argument would be reached that was not anxious to have the parties appear if the testimony he desires is forthcoming from other sources.

Charge Cigarette Selling.
A new development in the situation is the issuance of warrants on charges of cigarette selling. These warrants will be served immediately, according to the states attorney.
A total of 20 men have been bound over to the summer term of the district court and Louis Campbell, who yesterday swore that she sold no liquor is facing a charge of perjury as the result of her testimony. When she appeared in court today she had no attorney and the states attorney declined to hear the case until she had secured legal advice, and Attorney Elde was assigned to care for her interests and the case will come up tomorrow morning.
Mr. Brennan stated today that he expected the case against Olaf A. Olson, wealthy proprietor of the Lexington hotel, would come up before the end of the present week.

MANY RESPOND TO APPEAL FOR 50 REGISTRARS

Sheriff French Receives Volunteers of Assistance From All Parts of County

TO BEGIN BIG JOB AS SOON AS CONGRESS ACTS

Tuesday's evening's Tribune, which carried Sheriff French's call for volunteers to assist in the registration of candidates for selective conscription had hardly left the press when the telephone began to ring. Bismarck folk, being the first to read the call, were the first to respond, but soon volunteers began to report by telephone from all parts of the county, and today the sheriff has accepted and officially commissioned 22 assistants, almost half of the whole number required.

At least one registrar will be needed in every precinct, and in some of the larger districts two will be necessary. There remains an opportunity for 28 loyal Burleigh county citizens to aid the administration in making the registration complete, and the sheriff feels there is no doubt that this number will be available by Saturday evening.

The task of registering all of the eligible male citizens of Burleigh county will be undertaken as soon as congress finally acts on the selective conscription bill and the president issues his proclamation. An effort will be made to confine the work to one day, and it has been urged by Governor Frazier that this day be made a patriotic festival.

The health of the family is an important question and one that should receive the most careful consideration in every real home.

has brought new health conditions into thousands of homes in America—homes where true advertising carries its message, backed by the endorsement of the many, many people who have used it and found that S. S. S. does the work.

S. S. S. stands first to-day as a blood purifier after a fifty-year test. If there were nothing else, that alone would tell the story.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and is most helpful, not only as a blood purifier, but also as a general tonic when the system is run down.

Coming to the success of S. S. S., there are many limitations. Therefore, demand the genuine S. S. S. by name. The only object any dealer has in substituting is that he makes more profit on the substitute. Watch for the trade mark.
